Learning Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will improve grammar skills through an in-depth review and practice of grammar and syntactical structures and attain the intermediate low proficiency level according to the ACTFL scale. • Students will develop reading, writing and conversation skills through the use of authentic texts and oral and written analyses of these. By the end of the semester, students will know how to read and write 25 new kanji characters. • Students will learn more about Japanese culture and how it is reflected in Japanese language.
Required Textbook	None

Expectations of Student	Unexcused absences will not be accepted. Due to the fact that class meets once a week, only two absences are allowed. If a student needs to miss a class, he/she is responsible for notifying the instructor before class requesting class assignments. Attendance is a crucial element of the final grade. Participation in discussion and group work are also very important for the final grade. It is essential that students come to class prepared. Questions and suggestions about materials, or other topics related to the class will also constitute a form of participation.
Evaluation Assessment	The final grade will be Pass / Fail. In order to pass this course, students will need to achieve its objectives, which will be reflected through improvements shown in in-class assignments and homework, and the fulfillment of all requirements: good attendance, active participation, timely completion of in-class assignments, and homework.
Webster University Plagiarism Policy Statement	Webster University strives to be a center of academic excellence. As part of our Statement of Ethics, the University strives to preserve academic honor and integrity by repudiating all forms of academic and intellectual dishonesty, including cheating, plagiarism and all other forms of academic dishonesty. Academic Dishonesty is unacceptable and is subject to a disciplinary response. The University reserves the right to utilize electronic databases, such as Turnitin.com, to assist faculty and students with their academic work.
Webster University Class Attendance Policy	Webster University reserves the right to involuntarily drop enrolled students from classes that they do not attend during the first week of classes. Attendance requirements are set by the instructor and, as a general rule; students are expected to attend all class sessions of every course. In the case of unavoidable absence, the student must contact the instructor. The instructor may give ample warning to the student and then recommend that the student withdraw from the course. The student is subject to appropriate academic penalty for incomplete or unacceptable makeup work, or for excessive or unexcused absences.
Recognition Credit Policy	Students who enroll in their first international language course - other than beginning level I - at Webster University, and complete the course with a grade of B or better, may qualify for recognition credit. Up to 12 recognition credit hours may be earned.

Note: This syllabus is subject to change to suit our needs as a class.

If any changes should occur, you will always be told in class or given a written description.
