Admission

Students who are interested in applying to this degree program should also see the Admission section of this catalog for general requirements.

Prerequisites for Admission

Application to the DMgt program requires documentation of the following:

- A master’s degree in a management-related field, such as business, economics, management, health management, industrial psychology or an MBA degree.
- Superior academic ability at the graduate level.
- Successful completion of at least one master’s level statistics course.
- General Management Admission Test (GMAT) score of a least 500. Applicant must request that Graduate Management Admissions send an official score report to Webster’s DMgt program.
- A minimum of three years of management experience.

Admission Requirements

The program accepts applications beginning November 1 for the subsequent year.

Applicants to the DMgt program are accepted annually and should submit the following:

- Prospective students must complete and submit the Application for Admission online through Graduate Admissions.
- A statement of goals, summarizing how the doctorate will advance the student’s career goals and personal objectives.
- Official transcripts of all previous undergraduate and graduate coursework. An English translation must be included if the transcripts are from a foreign institution.
- A current résumé.
- At least three letters of recommendation from business associates and/or faculty.
- A $125 nonrefundable application fee (waived for Webster University graduates).

A student who has not completed at least one doctoral-level course at Webster University within one year from the date of admission must reapply for admission to the DMgt degree program. This student must be reviewed again by the admission committee before enrolling in a doctoral-level course.

Students should consult the Tuition, Fees, and Refunds section for information regarding tuition, fees, tuition payments, tuition refunds, financial aid, and V.A. educational benefits.

Admission Process
Completed application files will be reviewed by the Doctoral Admissions Committee

• Applicants who pass initial screening will take part in a personal Skype interview. An interview is not a guarantee of admission to the program.
• The number of persons admitted for a given cohort will vary according to the total number of students currently in the program.
• Applicants will be notified of final decision by late summer.
• Admitted students will begin their degree program in the Fall 2 term (October).
• Admitted students are required to submit a deposit to secure their position in the class.

International Students
Applicants who are not U.S. citizens or permanent residents please complete all of the above documentation and submit the following:

• TOEFL, IELTS or Pearson score-official only
  • TOEFL Paper: 575
  • TOEFL Computer: 230
  • iBT: 89
  • IELTS: 6.5
  • Pearson: 53

Transfer of Credit
At the time of admission, the admission committee will determine coursework acceptable for transfer into the DMgt program.

A maximum of 6 credit hours may be transferred into the doctoral program. This coursework must be equivalent to required courses in the DMgt program.

Coursework that has been applied toward the completion of a degree and reading courses or courses completed by independent or directed study cannot be transferred into a DMgt program.

Academic Probation and Dismissal
Students accepted into this program are expected to perform academically at a doctoral level. To remain in this program, students are expected to achieve the following academic milestones based on a grade-point average:

• At end of six Core Courses: Have a GPA of 3.0
• At the conclusion of their final classroom course: Have a GPA of 3.0

Failure to achieve either GPA milestone will result in the student being dismissed from the program. For the GPA system, see Academic Policies and Procedures.

Students whose GPA falls below 3.0 or who receives a grade below a B in a course will meet with the program director to discuss their academic performance.

Other doctoral academic quality policies include:

• A student who receives an F grade in a course must retake the course with a satisfactory grade before forming a Doctoral Project committee.

Doctoral policies on retaking courses:

• A student who receives a C grade has the option of retaking the course.
• A student may retake one core course and a total of two courses overall.
• No course may be retaken more than once.

Policy on incompletes/withdrawals:

In accordance with Webster University policy for graduate students, incomplete may be offered to a doctoral student if the majority of the coursework has been completed, and a major life/work event has occurred, been documented, submitted to the instructor for review and subsequently accepted as a reasonable justification.

Furthermore, students may continue on in the program with an incomplete, and while it is advisable to finish this incomplete as soon as possible, students who incur a second incomplete without finishing the first will be asked to take a leave of absence until the previous incomplete is finished. All Webster University grading policies apply, which indicates that students have one year to finish an incomplete before it turns to a ZF and the course must be repeated.

Advancement to Candidacy
The student is advanced to candidacy following the successful completion of the 12 classroom courses and after the faculty has approved the Doctoral Project proposal. Information on the format and requirements for the Doctoral Project is available in the doctoral student handbook, which can be obtained from the program director.

Degree Completion
Upon completion of a successful defense of the doctoral project, as reviewed by the student’s project committee, the committee will recommend to the dean of the George Herbert Walker School of Business & Technology that the student be awarded the DMgt degree.

As of June 1, 1992, students who enter the program must complete all degree requirements within five years after completion of their initial DMgt course. Students may apply to the DMgt program director for extensions which will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

A student may apply to the DMgt program director for a leave of absence of two years or less. If the absence is approved, the five-year time limit will be suspended for that period and will resume at the end of the leave of absence, whether or not the student enrolls in DMgt courses.
