Buddhist Studies

Certificate
18 Credit Hours

This program is offered by the College of Arts & Sciences/Religious Studies Department. It is available at the St. Louis home campus and at the Cha-Am campus.

The Buddhist studies certificate program of study explores the complex social reality of Buddhism in Asia today. Students study at Webster's campus in Cha-Am, Thailand and investigate firsthand the many ways in which contemporary Buddhists engage their changing social world -- through grassroots activism, as well as through art, ritual, philosophy, institutional reform and political debate. Classroom discussions, field excursions, guest lectures and opportunities for meditation practice are built into the curriculum.

For information on general requirements for the certificate, see Certificate Program Policies and Procedures.
