Course Descriptions

EDUC 1000 Educational Program Analysis (3)

Many adult students have gained the equivalent of college-level learning through their work experiences, training on the job, volunteer activities, civic involvement, travel or other nonacademic settings. In this independent course, students learn to document their college-level learning into a portfolio that can then be assessed for college credit. Permission from the Coordinator for Experiential Learning required for enrollment. Prerequisite: Permission from Academic Advising.

EDUC 1050 Outdoor Education (2-3)

An introduction to environmental education that includes environmental living skills, curriculum enrichment through outdoor activities, stress challenge, group dynamics, environmental education, and global sustainability.

EDUC 1100 Math Tutoring (1)

This course identifies basic tutoring techniques that encourage a child to think about, verbalize, and solve problems. It will also identify some common K-5 math problem areas, provide video examples of good tutoring techniques and materials, and address classroom etiquette. Successful completion of the course is a requirement for participation in the Webster Math Tutoring Program. Prerequisite: Approval of instructor.

EDUC 1500 Webster 101 (1)

Webster 101 is designed as an introduction to college life and is intended for first year students. This course will help the first year student make the most of his/her career at Webster University. Using various assessments and exercises, each student will develop a deeper understanding of him/herself and use that understanding to learn adaptation strategies, such as goal setting, values clarification, time management, money management, and stress management skills that will work for each student in and out of the classroom. Each student will also learn how to use the many resources Webster provides to support students in meeting both academic and social challenges. All freshmen are invited but not required to enroll. See also: Student Affairs. Prerequisite: First time freshman status.

EDUC 1510 Major and Career Explorations (1)

This class is designed to provide students with the opportunity to explore major and career interests. Students will take several self-evaluation assessments that will allow them to understand their values, interest, personality characteristics and skills in relation to a variety of majors. Students will also learn resources for obtaining accurate major and career related information. The course will include one-on-one meeting with career counselors to create individualized career development plans and career-related group outings. The skills and strategies learned in this class will enable students to make informed decisions about choosing majors and careers.

EDUC 2000 Beginning Practicum in Education (1-2)

This practicum provides supervised field experience for students who are beginning their education studies. The focus of this practicum is observation of teachers and students in a specific classroom setting. Taken concurrently with EDUC 2800 Foundations of Education. Must be completed with a grade of B or better.

EDUC 2110 Communication in Education (3)

Students in this introductory communications course focus on learning about communication models and the affective domain. Students work on developing self-awareness and interpersonal communication skills. GCP Coding: (SSHB) (OCOM)

EDUC 2140 Writing for Teachers (3)

This course is designed to help prospective teachers develop a sense of themselves as writers as they experience the components of writers' workshop. Through self-evaluation, peer response, and teacher evaluation, candidates will strengthen the clarity, efficacy, and intentionality of their writing. GCP Coding: (WCOM)

EDUC 2180 International Children’s Literature (3)

This course is designed to provide students an opportunity to become acquainted with the great wealth of trade books and other media forms available for today’s children, preschool through grade eight. Students will utilize literature as a lens for understanding the child's historical and contemporary roles in U.S. and global societies. Extensive and intensive reading and analysis of children's literature will be required. This is a writing intensive course. GCP Coding: (GLBL) (INTC)

EDUC 2240 Middle School Philosophy and History (3)

Students examine the history of the middle school movement from the 18th century through the 21st century and its evolving philosophy. Implications for teacher professionalism, school and classroom design, and teaching methodologies are also studied.

EDUC 2300 Child and Adolescent Development (3)

Students in this course are presented with theories of physical, cognitive, emotional, and social development. The emphasis is on developmental processes beginning in early childhood through the teenage years. Theories of development are interrelated and integrated with observations of children and adolescents and discussions of educational applications. Development is studied in the context of family, school, community, and society. Intracultural and intercultural variations in development are examined. GCP Coding: (SSHB) (INTC)
