PHOT 3500 StoryLab (3)

The Webster University StoryLab is a unique opportunity for School of Communications students from every discipline to come together and work on storytelling projects, both of their own design as well as helping others realize their vision. Students can use this course to develop professional examples of work, do storytelling projects like films, podcasts, YouTube shows, advertising campaigns, investigative journalism, scripts, concept development for television shows, documentary photography and video, radio shows, and anything else you can imagine. Students will develop and pitch ideas, and work together across disciplines to complete projects from ideation through development and into production and implementation. StoryLab functions like an actual laboratory environment where the telling of compelling stories is the whole focus. May be repeated for credit as content differs.

Prerequisite: PHOT 1000 and sophomore or higher status.

PHOT 3599 Independent Study (1-12)

Independent study involves research work on a specialized subject or project, artistic work, or study of an interdisciplinary nature. In contrast to a practicum, the emphasis in an independent study is usually an individual pursuit of a specific content area. Requires the filing of official form and permission of the instructor. May be repeated for credit if content differs.

PHOT 4610 Readings in Photography (3-6)

May be repeated for credit if content differs. Prerequisites: Media major, junior/senior standing, permission of the instructor and filing of official form.

PHOT 4620 Senior Overview (3-6)

Provides an opportunity for seniors to demonstrate their proficiency in a selected area of photography. The student assumes responsibility for the production of a project under the direction of a faculty member. Projects may include an exhibit or a thesis. Prerequisites: Senior standing, acceptance into the major through portfolio review, permission of the instructor and filing of official form.
