Criminology (BA)

This program is offered by the College of Arts & Sciences/Anthropology & Sociology Department. It is available online, at the St. Louis home campus and at select U.S. campuses. Please see the Locations Offering Undergraduate Programs section of this catalog for a list of campuses where this program is offered.

Program Description
The mission of the major in criminology is to provide students with a multidisciplinary approach to crime and deviance, with particular emphasis on providing critical thinking skills and familiarizing students with the dominant ways professionals use to explain, predict and prevent crime and victimization.

Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of the program, students will be able to:

• Identify the strengths and weaknesses of major criminological theories.
• Analyze the policy implications of criminological theories.
• Describe the elements and development of the criminal justice system and its role in maintaining social order.
• Evaluate how the institutions and elements of the criminal justice system vary across jurisdictions and interact with one another.
• Apply principles of crime prevention to the policy that attempts to effectively reduce crime and victimization.
• Compare the theoretical foundations of crime analysis and their abilities to predict and analyze patterns of crime.
• Articulate several major types of crime, their causes and proposed solutions to reduce them.
• Compare the techniques, sources and means of analysis of criminological data research methods.

Degree Requirements
A minimum of 128 credit hours consisting of the following:

• 43 required credit hours for the major
• Within the required 43 hours, 18 hours must be at the 3000-level and above, with at least 6 hours at the 4000-level
• 3 international language requirement credit hours
• Applicable University Global Citizenship Program hours
• Electives

This program may be completed either partially or fully online.

Students will complete 43 credit hours for the major as specified above with a grade of C- or better.

No more than 6 credit hours obtained in senior thesis, practica, independent learning experiences, reading courses and assessment of prior learning may be applied toward the 43 credit hours required for a major.

Transfer students can apply up to 15 credit hours of approved criminology coursework from other colleges/universities towards the CRIM major.

In the final semester of study, each student must register for CRIM 4900 Senior Capstone (3 credit hours) and submit an overview paper.

International Language Requirement
• A minimum of three hours in a non-native language is required in addition to the requirements for the major.
Courses used towards the International Language requirement may also be used to fulfill general education requirements or a major/minor in a foreign language.
• Transfer students who have completed their 3 credits at an institution of higher education are considered to have fulfilled the requirement, as are students who have scored a “3” or higher on an Advanced Placement exam in a non-native language.
• For students whose native language is not English, a passing grade on the TOEFL will count as their foreign language requirement. Students who are from bilingual families but have no evidence of academic study of the second language on a transcript will need to take one course.
