European Studies (BA)

This program is offered by the College of Arts & Sciences/History, Politics, and International Relations Department, and is only available at the St. Louis home campus.

Program Description
The European studies major explores European society and culture from a multi-disciplinary perspective. Students will become familiar with Europe's distinctive history and politics; its commerce and media; and its contributions to the arts, literature and ideas. Majors will demonstrate a solid grounding in at least one European language and will spend a term of study at one or more of Webster's European campuses.

Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of the program, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate familiarity with major events, literary, philosophic and artistic movements in European history.
- Outline the major ideological belief systems in modern Europe and their importance to politics, culture and society.
- Describe the distinctive qualities of European commerce, law and/or communications.

Degree Requirements
A minimum of 128 credit hours consisting of the following:

- 36 credit hours in European Studies
- Of those 36 credit hours, four must be advanced-level courses (3000-level or 4000-level) which cover all of the (three) distribution areas
- ISTL 4510 European Studies Overview (may be taken for 0 or 1 credit)
- Applicable University Global Citizenship Program hours
- Electives

Special Requirements
Proficiency in one of the following languages: French, German, Italian or Spanish. Proficiency may be demonstrated either by a foreign language exam or by passing a course in one of these languages at the 3000-level.

At least one term of study at Webster University's campus in London, Leiden, Geneva, or Vienna. (Students may, with the approval of the program director, also fulfill this requirement at a university in Europe that is outside the Webster network.)
