

The Center for International Education
presents:
International Symposium
Series

Tuesday November
29th
12pm to 1pm
@ the Emerson
Library Conference room

I'm Tired of Being Sexy:
New Perspectives on Brazilian Music

Dr. Derek Pardue of Washington University

Music is without question a major industry and national symbol of Brazil. It follows, then, that music has been a lens through which foreigners have reckoned Brazilian society. Historically, this has meant a story of sex, parties and occasional socio-political critique.

Pardue wants to refocus our attention on Brazilian sound and society.