1. Course Description: (provide details of student focus, rationale, scope, and prerequisites) When teaching students, dealing with co-workers or family members, human behavior is either functional for specific purposes or dysfunctional. This class will explore the WHY, WHEN and HOW of human behavior and ways to enhance functional behavior. Emphasis is placed on a strong knowledge base, problem solving skills and specific behavior management techniques. Specific indicators of problems, implementation of techniques and identification of appropriate referrals for additional help will also be stressed.

2. Learning Outcomes: (goals, objectives, course outcomes, etc.) Identify any MOSTEP or professional standards that are met by each learning outcome.

Students will:

- Explain basic concepts in each model of discipline.
(MOSTEP Standard 6 Benchmark a, b, c)
- Evaluate the models of discipline in light of student need, teacher need, and preferred teaching style.
(MOSTEP Standard 3 Benchmark a and c)
- Organize a personal system of discipline that meets one's preferred style of teaching as well as the needs of students.
