1. Course Description:

The Leadership Seminar is the culminating experience of the Specialist Degree in Educational Leadership administrator certification program. This course offers individualized and collaborative opportunities for prospective school administrators to:

- Integrate learning from coursework, internships and other professional experiences
- Complete and present a professional portfolio that documents achievement of all the Standards for School Leaders
- prepare for the Interstate School Leaders Licensure Consortium (ISLLC) Examination
- Articulate a philosophical, theoretical framework for leadership

Students will present a portfolio that contains documents and written commentary that, taken together, demonstrates knowledge, analysis, application, and synthesis of each ISLLC standard. Questions from the ISLLC examination will be presented and individually answered in each of the standard areas. Students will share their own professional portfolio and response to these questions with each other and then make refinements in their own professional portfolio. A philosophical/theoretical framework for leadership will be discussed throughout the course with reflective activities that solidify each individual student's own. Finally, there will be a strong reflective/self-analysis component combined with a professional development plan that bridges into the future.

5. EVALUATION: (basis of evaluation with explanation regarding the nature of the assignment and the percentage of the grade assigned to each item below)

Students will present a portfolio that contains documents and written commentary that, taken together, demonstrates knowledge, analysis, application, and synthesis of each ISLLC standard at the proficient level or above (See criteria in the “Dominant Program Outcome Rubric,” toward the end of the course for further information) in order to pass this course. Each standard is worth 10 points, for a total of 40 points.

Questions that emulate the ISLLC examination will be presented and individually answered in each area. Students will share their own professional portfolio and response to these questions with the class and then make follow-up refinements in their own professional portfolio. Self analysis of responses will be done using individual rubrics that are consistent with the school leaders licensure assessment process and college standards. ELCC ISLLC, MoSTEP & SOE standards. These rubrics can be found in the School Leaders Licensure Assessment: Study Kit, books 1-4. Individual completion of a sample vignette will be worth 5 points out of 20 points. A philosophical/theoretical framework for leadership will be discussed throughout the course through reflective activities that solidify each individual student's own perspective. Individual, small group, and class dialogue using the text “Principle-Centered Leadership,” will be used as the basis for this activity. Each student will outline each chapter and dialogue on content in class. Each weekly outline and participation in the dialogue will be worth 5 points, for a total of 25 points. Finally, there will be a strong reflective/self-analysis activity combined with a professional development plan that bridges into the future. Each self-analysis activity will be worth 5 points, for a total of 30 points. The compilation of each self-analysis activity will culminate in the development of a next stem professional development plan will be worth 10 points. The total points for the course, including additional class activities, as outlined in the course schedule, will then be applied to the grading scale.

Course outcome activity:

Pick one thing that you have learned in this class and used in your classroom/program/building. Explain how this knowledge/skill has impacted on student learning. Provide baseline and post data to support the impact. Consider throughout this session and complete before the end of the session.
