Weekly Schedule

The weeks in this course will be Friday-to-Friday. New content will be available on Friday mornings, at 9:00 am central time. All assignments will be due on Fridays at midnight, central time.

Discussions Participation

You are required to actively participate in weekly online discussions. While there is no specific day/time at which you must log in, I strongly recommend that you log in several times per week to participate. Your participation will be graded on both the quantity and quality of your postings. First submissions to weekly discussion are expected by Tuesday, midnight. You are required to post a minimum of one original posting to each discussion question, and 1 posting that is a feedback or response to other students' postings. Postings such as "I agree," "Good Answer," or the likes, are not acceptable.

Small Group Activity

There is 1 small group activity in this course, which requires group discussion and a summary report to the class. Groups will be assigned at the end of week 1. Additional instructions are available in the course.

Group Project

Groups will work together to prepare a report/presentation on distance learning activities in a country (chosen from a list that will be posted in the course). Groups will be assigned at the end of week 1 (will be the same as small group activity). You will be graded on both group and individual work in this activity. Additional instructions are available in the course.

Individual Projects

1. Annotated Bibliography – Choose a topic related to this course and create an annotated bibliography of at least 4 research articles. A short research exercise in Week 4 is designed to help you find appropriate articles. Due at end of Week 7.
2. Program Case Study – Prepare a case study of one distance education program or institution (in the US or elsewhere) with special emphasis on the factors discussed in this course (history, scope, technology, etc.). Due at end of Week 8.

Additional instructions are available in the course. Project topics must be submitted by end of Week 3. A progress report is due by end of Week 6.

Independent Activities and Self-Reflection

Several independent activities are assigned throughout the course. They involve individual work that is designed to help students reflect on and discuss their own experiences and the content.

Late Submissions

- Grades for work submitted up to 1 week past the due date will be reduced by 10%.
- Any work submitted more than 1 week past the due date will be reduced by 15%.
- No work will be accepted after Monday, October 17 at midnight (central time).

ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY:

Students at Webster University are expected to practice academic honesty.

Avoiding Plagiarism

Plagiarism is intentionally claiming that another person's work is his/her own or implying that another person's work is his/her own (through inadequate or inaccurate citations of reference material.)

Students:

- Should not copy whole portions of text from another source as a major component of papers or projects.
- Should identify the title, author, page number/webpage address, and publication date of works when directly quoting small portions of texts, articles, interviews, or websites.
- Should appropriately identify the source of information when paraphrasing (restating) ideas from texts, interviews, articles, or websites.
- Should follow the guidelines of the American Psychological Association Style Guide when referencing all research sources.

Consequences of Academic Dishonesty:

For further information about the consequences of academic dishonesty please consult the Webster University Student Handbook.

ACCESSIBILITY/ACCOMODATIONS POLICY:

If you have a disability that may have some impact on your work in this class and for which you may require accommodations contact the Director of the Academic Resource Center, Dr. Pat McLeese, at (314) 968-7495.
