If you are beginning the Master of Arts (MA) in International Relations Program at Webster University and have not yet completed a program plan, please contact Ms. Carly Timm, Assistant Director of International Relations. Students are reminded that INTL 6000 is the capstone course for the program and can only be taken when all other requirements for the degree have been met (or during the final term when those requirements are being met). Students wishing to pursue the thesis option must declare their intent before they have completed 21 credit hours. Thesis packets are available in Academic Advising or in the Department office (HSPC 208). See also the University’s Graduate Thesis Requirements document: http://www.webster.edu/documents/fdc/graduate_theses_guidelines_current.pdf. Students may register for thesis credits only after all other degree requirements have been met. Please note that we offer a variety of International Relations courses online. Please refer to the online course schedule for details.
