

GIE Corporate Interest Form

Webster University's Global Internship Exchange challenges aspiring young professionals to apply their academic training to the workplace through an internship placement. Global internships have a transformative impact on the intern's professional and personal development as well as on host organizations and communities. Interns are available throughout the summer months.

Number of Interns Desired: _____

Requested Skill Sets:

Business:

International Business

Management

Communications

Other: _____

Technical:

Engineering

Computer Programming

Information Technology

Other: _____

Financial:

Accounting

Finance

Banking

Other: _____

Areas of work/projects do you need completed:

Regions of Particular Interest:

Africa

Asia, Central and South

Asia, East and Pacific

Europe, Eastern

Europe, Western

Mexico

Middle East

South America

We prefer to review resume for intern candidates: Yes No

We prefer to participate directly in phone/skype interviews of candidates prior to selection and placement:

Yes No

Name of Company:

Primary Contact:

Email Address:

Business Address:

City:

State:

Zip:

Phone:

Office Hours:

Where will your intern(s) be based? This information will help during both the interview and placement process. We understand circumstances may change these criteria and will work with you to respond to any updates.

Functions and/or departments where the intern could be assigned:

Description of possible projects or duties:

Please email this form to Jennifer White, GIE Director, jenniferwhite80@webster.edu. Thank you.