

Program Description

The master of arts (M.A.) in art is offered with areas of emphasis in art history and criticism, and studio art (ceramics, drawing, graphic design, painting, photography, printmaking, and sculpture). The M.A. in Art History and Criticism typically prepares students to enter Ph.D. programs in the field, and also provides a background in art historical research and contemporary criticism for those interested in art museum and gallery professions. The M.A. in Studio Art degree is an initial professional degree, comprised of a series of class/studio and independent experiences to enhance and develop individual studio practices. This is an ideal degree option for students intending to seek admission to competitive M.F.A. programs, as an advanced degree for secondary art teachers, and as a culminating educational pursuit in its own right.

Applicants should demonstrate advanced preparation through portfolio review, previous coursework, and résumé. In addition to the Webster University graduate admission requirements, applicants must satisfy the admission requirements listed below and petition to study within one of the areas of emphasis. A student admitted into the program will be assigned an advisor from the art faculty. Advancement to candidacy in the M.A. in art program is achieved by completion of a minimum of 6 credit hours with grades of B or above, and a positive faculty evaluation in the Graduate Advancement to Candidacy Review.

Within the first 18 credit hours of graduate work, the M.A. in art history candidate is expected to demonstrate the ability to read art historical writings in either French or German. This requirement may be filled by successful examination of reading knowledge administered by the Department of International Languages and Cultures, or completion of the fourth semester (with at least a 3.0 grade average) of a college or university language course.

An M.A. student in art history must pass a comprehensive written examination (approximately 4 hours) broadly covering the field of art history. Students must take this examination during the semester in which they complete 20 credit hours of graduate work. The comprehensive exam may be retaken only once.

Admission Requirements

1. For art history and criticism: bachelor of arts (B.A.) in art history or approved equivalent from an accredited institution
For studio art: bachelor of fine arts (B.F.A.) from an accredited institution
2. Completed application for the M.A. in art
3. Submission of official transcripts
4. Three letters of recommendation, at least two of which must be from former teachers
5. Statement of approximately 500 words examining reasons for graduate study in art
6. An interview for art history and criticism, or satisfactory portfolio review for studio art, by an appointed committee of full-time art faculty consisting of the department chair, the major professor in the student's potential area of emphasis, and one other faculty member

Program Curriculum

The M.A. student in art must successfully complete a minimum of 36 credit hours of coursework that is relevant to the student's area of emphasis including:

• ART 5000 Graduate Seminar in Art	3 hours
• Emphasis coursework	18 hours
• Graduate art electives	9 hours
• ART 6250 Thesis	6 hours

Art history and criticism students must submit a formal research thesis following Webster University graduate thesis guidelines. The thesis requirement for studio art comprises a written thesis and an exhibition of selected works completed in the program.
