Catalog Description	Students examine the character and importance of the marketing process, its essential functions, and the institutions exercising these functions. Course content focuses on the major policies that underlie the activities of marketing institutions and the social, economic, and political implications of such policies.
Prerequisites	None Required
Course Level Learning Outcomes	Upon Completion of this course the student should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be able to properly identify and select markets for which specific products will be targeted. • Explain the basic functional aspects necessary to formulate an integrated Marketing Plan. This includes Consumer Buying Behavior, Environment, Marketing Research, Product Management, Promotion, Channels of Distribution and Pricing. • Be able to perform marketing research that is targeted towards reading of topical articles related to Marketing and being able to reference their topics to that being discussed in the class. • Be able to develop a complete, conceptual Marketing Plan based on what is learned in this class. This objective deals with the practical application of the subject of Marketing and integrates the information presented in the entire class. This overview of a conceptual marketing plan will be used to build detailed Marketing Plans in future marketing core courses.

Activities	Marketing Plan: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The research project associated with the Marketing 5000 course is outlined in Appendix C section of the text. Completion of the Marketing Plan (individual or group project) will enhance the student’s ability to understand the material being taught in the class and relate the course content to the real world applications. • Details of this Marketing Plan format is presented in Appendix C at the end of the text. • Students will prepare a 20 minute executive presentation of their term paper. Presentations will be in PowerPoint format. Case Study Analysis: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The case discussion and analysis is part of weekly class exercises. The cases selected are representative of each of the chapter topics for the week. These are presented in the text or from other sources such as video. The purpose of the case discussions is to provide an opportunity for the students to apply what they are learning in the class, from the text readings and associate these concepts with contemporary real world situations. The following outline be utilized in presenting, analyzing and discussing these cases: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Summary of the respective case ➤ Key marketing Issues addressed in the case ➤ Addressing the questions relative to the case ➤ Class application – utilization of the “language of marketing” as presented in the case. • Students may on occasion give presentations to the class on cases that they have been assigned for class discussion. Literature Review: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Each week students will perform individual research and provide a written review of archived articles or recent publications that address the concepts presented in each week’s assigned chapters. Each individual paper will have a point value of 25 points. Students will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. List the complete reference for the article 2. Give a complete critique of the article 3. Relate this article to the class readings and discussions Other Activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will be expected to accomplish some assignments in groups. Case studies, exercises and/or quizzes will be used to support the group work requirements. • The time in class will be spent on lectures and exercises, with discussions of videos and short cases. Most exercises will be conducted during class in the form of group case analyses of the cases at the end of the chapters in the text. In class exercises cannot be made up if you missed the class.

- There will be a midterm examination the fourth week and a final exam on the ninth week. The mid-term exam will be short answer and cover Chapters 1-11. The final exam will also be essay-type and be comprised of the remaining chapters

Exams:

- Mid-term and final exams will be take home examinations consisting of essay questions and a bonus point essay question. Failure to turn in an examination when due, will result in an automatic deduction of 15 points, with an additional assessment of 10 points for each following day until received. All late submissions must be turned-in at the Webster Jacksonville campus office during scheduled office hours, regardless of the campus location where the instruction is received.

Passports Internet Proficiency:

- Students are required to submit at least five (5) reference searches, not to exceed four (4) pages each, researching a main theme of the course using Passports full text databases. The assignment will include a reference list cover sheet in APA format. All reference searches will include a brief synopsis of the referenced article. Screen prints will not be accepted. These research documents will be turned in as a part of your Term Project and will be placed in the Appendices. Internet Research is not due prior to the final paper submission, however, you may turn them in early for review to ensure that you are preparing them correctly.

Class Participation and Attendance:

- Students are expected to attend all class sessions of every course for the full 36 contact hours. In the case of unavoidable absence, the student must contact the instructor. The student is subject to appropriate academic penalty for incomplete or unacceptable makeup work, or for excessive or unexcused absences.
- Attendance the last day of class is mandatory to ensure that all work is completed and to be awarded a passing grade.
- Participants are expected to arrive on time and be actively involved in the learning experience. Each student should desire to learn, participate, and proactively contribute to the learning of others during each discussion and exercise.
- Students are to participate in classroom discussions. The discussions are an opportunity for students to reveal their understanding of the assignments made for the current and previous classes.
- Assignments are given to prepare the student to participate in class discussions; therefore, it is imperative that reading assignments and associated questions for discussion be completed prior to class.
- A maximum of 10 points will be awarded based on the level and quality of participation and preparation.
- Failure to turn in an assignment within one week will result in a grade

	of "0" for that assignment. In addition, failure to submit an assignment will lower the final grade by an additional two points. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All assignments are due as detailed in the Course Schedule.
Policy Statements: University Policies	University policies are provided in the current course catalog and course schedules. They are also available on the university website. This class is governed by the university's published policies. The following policies are of particular interest: Academic Honesty The university is committed to high standards of academic honesty. Students will be held responsible for violations of these standards. Please refer to the university's academic honesty policies for a definition of academic dishonesty and potential disciplinary actions associated with it. Drops and Withdrawals Please be aware that, should you choose to drop or withdraw from this course, the date on which you notify the university of your decision will determine the amount of tuition refund you receive. Please refer to the university policies on drops and withdrawals (published elsewhere) to find out what the deadlines are for dropping a course with a full refund and for withdrawing from a course with a partial refund. Special Services If you have registered as a student with a documented disability and are entitled to classroom or testing accommodations, please inform the instructor at the beginning of the course of the accommodations you will require in this class so that these can be provided. Disturbances Since every student is entitled to full participation in class without interruption, disruption of class by inconsiderate behavior is not acceptable. Students are expected to treat the instructor and other students with dignity and respect, especially in cases where a diversity of opinion arises. Students who engage in disruptive behavior are subject to disciplinary action, including removal from the course. Student Assignments Retained From time to time, student assignments or projects will be retained by The Department for the purpose of academic assessment. In every case, should the assignment or project be shared outside the academic Department, the student's name and all identifying

	information about that student will be redacted from the assignment or project. Contact Hours for this Course It is essential that all classes meet for the full instructional time as scheduled. A class cannot be shortened in length. If a class session is cancelled for any reason, it must be rescheduled.
Course Policies	This syllabus may be revised at the discretion of the instructor without the prior notification or consent of the student. The schedule below presents an approximate expectation of course progress. The instructor reserves the right to change the overall course grade weighting. Any changes will be announced in class. In line with the university’s policy on academic honesty, please be advised that instances of academic dishonesty will result in a zero for the assignment and will be reported to the Dean of the School of Business and Technology for further disciplinary action. Make-Up Requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For each class hour missed, a one (1) page, double-spaced, typed paper, with one (1) reference will be submitted by the end of the term. The instructor will assign the topic. A four (4) hour class will require four (4) pages supported with (4) references from popular or academic press. • This paper will be graded and incorporated in the class participation grade. If the make-up work is not submitted, the student's final grade will be reduced one (1) letter grade. • Students are responsible for any class material presented during their absence, and any assignments due should be submitted prior to the absence, if possible.
