

Webster University, an independent, comprehensive, nondenominational institution invites applications for

Adjunct Faculty

Little Rock Metropolitan Graduate Center is seeking working professionals and academicians in the following area of interest:

International Business (Accounting and Finance),
Finance, Media Communications, Health Administration and Environmental Management.

Candidates must have a doctorate or master's degree.

An institution founded in 1915, Webster University is a global university with campuses in 25 states and 8 foreign countries with an enrollment exceeding 25,000 students.

All courses are scheduled in the evening.
Webster University offers an excellent salary.
Candidates must submit a letter of application, stipulating area of interest, vita and copies of transcripts.

Ann Wead Kimbrough, Director

Webster University

200 West Capitol, Suite 1500 • Little Rock, AR 72201

www.webster.edu/littlerock

Applications received by August 1, 2009, are assured full consideration.

Webster University is an EOE/AAE