Activities	This course requires various problem solving, and case analysis in addition to compelling class discussion on many interesting topics. These assignments are for your benefit; this material will be learned much more effectively by integrating these activities than from the reading alone. In addition, an important objective is to develop an awareness and appreciation for current issues beyond the concepts that are described in the textbook. Each week throughout the course the following types of assignment activities will be required: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chapter Problems and Cases: Each chapter has a variety of problems that reinforce some dimension of the material from that chapter. The requirements should be obvious from the information given. When I grade your assignments I will be looking for the conscientious effort you have made in attempting to solve the problem. The goal, of course, is to learn through those mistakes. When a problem is scheduled, instructions will be given for the completion of the assignment and some of your assignment problems will require using Excel. All assignment items are due each week by the beginning of class and will not be accepted

	otherwise without having made previous arrangements with the instructor. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chapter Projects, & Assignments 30% of the final grade. Submitting someone else's work as your own will not be tolerated and will be treated with the consequences of academic dishonesty. • Significant class discussion will take place each week around the assignment items and it is your responsibility to proactively participate in that class discussion. Quizzes and class participation activities will comprise 10% of the final grade. • There will be a mid Exam and a Final Exam (Week 9). Examinations comprise 60% of the course grade and will consist of multiple choice questions, problem solving, and short answer type questions. There will be no opportunity to make up an exam unless arrangements have been made with the instructor in advance.
Policy Statements: University Policies	University policies are provided in the current course catalog and course schedules. They are also available on the university website. This class is governed by the university's published policies. The following policies are of particular interest: Academic Honesty The university is committed to high standards of academic honesty. Students will be held responsible for violations of these standards. Please refer to the university's academic honesty policies for a definition of academic dishonesty and potential disciplinary actions associated with it. Drops and Withdrawals Please be aware that, should you choose to drop or withdraw from this course, the date on which you notify the university of your decision will determine the amount of tuition refund you receive. Please refer to the university policies on drops and withdrawals (published elsewhere) to find out what the deadlines are for dropping a course with a full refund and for withdrawing from a course with a partial refund. Special Services If you have registered as a student with a documented disability and are entitled to classroom or testing accommodations, please inform the instructor at the beginning of the course of the accommodations you will require in this class so that these can be provided. Disturbances Since every student is entitled to full participation in class without interruption, disruption of class by inconsiderate behavior is not acceptable. Students are expected to treat the instructor and other students with dignity and respect, especially in cases where a diversity of opinion arises. Students who engage in disruptive behavior are subject to disciplinary action, including removal from the course.

	Student Assignments Retained From time to time, student assignments or projects will be retained by The Department for the purpose of academic assessment. In every case, should the assignment or project be shared outside the academic Department, the student's name and all identifying information about that student will be redacted from the assignment or project. Contact Hours for this Course It is essential that all classes meet for the full instructional time as scheduled. A class cannot be shortened in length. If a class session is cancelled for any reason, it will be rescheduled.
Course Policies	This syllabus may be revised at the discretion of the instructor without the prior notification or consent of the student. The schedule below presents an approximate expectation of course progress. The instructor reserves the right to add, delete, or modify any weeks of this schedule. The instructor also reserves the right to change the overall course grade weighting. Any changes will be announced in class. If you miss class you are responsible for getting notes and assignments. No late homework will be accepted and missed quizzes will receive scores of zero unless prior approval to miss class is obtained from the instructor.
