

Summary of responses by Faculty Senate to What is essence of mission?
 Survey taken 3/1/07

Promote international presence in our academic program	Promote critical awareness and skills among our students	Promote civil engagement as part of student experience
Education available to all	Real world education taught by working professionals in the field	Global education/global focus
International focus	Serve underserved populations	Make money
International presence in academe	Integrity in all operations	Awareness of diversity and support for diversity
Practice based learning	Liberal education	International experience
Teach students to blend theory and practice	Prepare them for globalized world	Provide education in a form that makes it widely available
Putting theory into practice/teaching our students to understand theory within their discipline & put it into practice	Be a participant with a world-wide community
Globalization through international studies and study abroad experience	High quality education
To prepare learners for a multicultural world	To be inclusive –a theme of social justice	To provide our students with the tools and real world knowledge for success