

Webster University Mission Questionnaire Results
 Leiden Faculty, staff, alumni
 March 2007

Creating an environment that promotes higher education and positive learning experience	The promotion of continuous learning and education for students, faculty, staff	Reflects personal flexibility
Staff, faculty, students work towards the best	Allowing students to achieve in life through better education	Making things possible for all students to succeed
Global higher ed--internationalization	Lifelong learning	Understand student needs—open up university education for people who didn't have access
Provide global, flexible and useful education	To provide accessible and meaningful help in individual growth
Instill a desire for life-long learning	Educate students to become global citizens	Provide quality education with a strong link to current practice in the real world
Webster University provides educational opportunities for a wide range of students by putting customer focused processes, policies in place	Delivering the education in a format that students desire
Open supportive learning environment	Reach people who are in need of knowledge	Use today's technology to support classical education in the areas of business and tech
To offer international education worldwide	Combine practice and theory	Personal and professional
To reach as many perspective students as possible	Provide them with the tools to achieve an education	Provide them with a good atmosphere in which to achieve this with built in flexibility
The mission of the business school minus the words "business and technology" seems perfect to me	"lifelong learner" seems very pertinent in an academic environment—also very important	Perhaps the word consistency should be added
Global education, American style, practical, sensible	Liberal arts, but professional and business like	Graduate professional career oriented programs
Life long learning event	The international experience	Flexibility
To bring excellent education to you	Excellent real life experienced faculty	Flexibility, service oriented
World class—world wide university education	Lifelong learning for university students everywhere	Educating the world professionally
To prepare individuals for effectively participating in life, ie work and play	Teach professional and experiential skills	Prepare individuals to become lifelong learners
Educate students to be successful	Educate students for better lives	Help students broaden their outlook on the world
What we are as an institution—we are unique and flexible	How do we plan to communicate our purpose to the outside world	International and worldwide
To educate	To supply students with the tools and knowledge needed in the real world	To offer a global perspective
Flexible approachable	professional	international