

Health Policy Graduate Class—May 2007 focus group

|  |  |   |
|--|--|---|
| To educate   | To provide a dynamic learning environment  | To inspire leadership..next generation of business owners and executives                          |
| To provide its students with competent instructor so as to ensure an above average learning experience | To give its educational staff a forum to teach to the best of their ability                                | To ensure an environment that is conducive to learning and working                                |
| Quality education experience   | Experienced faculty and staff  | Diverse academic environment  |
| To provide comprehensive education that prepares the student for the future                            | To use critical thinking and application of concepts   | Encourage interactive learning  |
| Education to all students—full or parttime, day and evening classes                                    | An open, liberal arts campus, non sectarian to provide an environment of learning throughout the community | A college that is responsive to new learning opportunities  |
| To achieve a higher education through various means: classroom instruction or web instructed courses   | Create a diverse environment that emphasizes a better learning environment                                 | Global education  |
| To educate the community of St. Louis and worldwide by providing numerous degree opportunities         | To respect all beings of the university and surrounding community  | To provide a safe campus for the students, faculty, staff and administration                      |
| To educate individuals to become professionals in field of study and contributing citizens in society  | Provide relevant/timely programs for students to apply in workplace  | Provide atmosphere of continued knowledge to teach beyond required curriculum                     |
| To educate students through a world-wide effort  | To prepare students with knowledge to affect their environment in a positive way                           | To impart knowledge of arts, sciences, and technology to enable students to lead productive lives |
| To represent outstanding, community worldwide education  | To educate tomorrow's leaders  | Respect responsibility and the ability to strive to be your best                                  |
| Provide quality affordable education   | Provide access to an education to those who would have an opportunity                                      | To create an international source of quality education  |
| To provide higher education to the public  | To support the education of young adults and adults  | To maintain a professional atmosphere of learning   |

|   |  |   |
|---|--|---|
|   | seeking to improve their career objectives                         |   |
| To provide quality education in a flexible and diverse environment  | Provide outreach to the community and strengthen community support | Offer multiple opportunities for students to pursue individual best             |
| For students to gain a better understanding in education  | Offers affordable cost to all students                             | Offers good staffs to students  |
| Meeting the standard of school to make sure the students can understand that they (staff, administration, etc) have the rights to learn | Mission is the teacher have the right tools to teach their class   | Mission for administration have assistants to assist the student with financial |