

POLT 1060 Intro to American Politics

To continue its diversity	To provide top-notch networking and job opportunities	To keep its students oriented: organizations, groups, clubs, etc.
To provide an International education/experience to students	World class education for tomorrow's leaders	Give students an environment that helps them in their field of interest by exposing them to faculty staff that are part of a particular field. Also provide aid/counseling for the students future career services.
To bring students and faculty from different races, religions, origins, etc., together in a social environment	To provide a learning environment for students, that allows them to have an understanding of a broad range of subjects.	To help each generation in being prepared to receive job opportunities and completely understand the job they are interested in.
To serve the community as well as areas worldwide in higher education opportunities.	To promote knowledge, understanding, and the overall college education to its students	To facilitate opportunities for the faculty, students, and staff involved with the university
To make sure students achieve to their best academic ability	Be open minded about all people's background, views, and beliefs even if they differ from your own	That every student feels that they belong to this university by being involved in student activities
Encourage communication between students and faculty	To prepare students to be moral, intellectual, and successful citizens	To provide students with diverse multicultural learning atmosphere to enrich their education
To educate and return new leaders to the community	To provide an intense and progressive learning area for all
To provide an interesting learning atmosphere with diversity, history, and academy	To provide students with real world knowledge of their selected field
Ensure students with a positive, well rounded education	Provide students the resources necessary to be successful, such as good advisors, faculty, and facilities	Promote diversity in a positive setting through the international exchange programs
Representing the US well to the world, and promoting diversity	Producing well-educated and successful graduates	Creating a positive and productive environment in which students can learn
Ethnically diverse. Giving equal opportunities to all despite race or color	To become more popular among high school students
Provide fair and balanced education to all students	Provide aid to students who meet pre-determined government standards	Provide a safe and nurturing environment for student and faculty
Prepare graduates to be successful in the outside	Provide stable environment conducive to learning	Provide proper educational resources for students

Additional Comments from POLT 1060 Mission Survey

This was administered on Friday, April 13, 2007.

The class is made up of traditional-aged students from a variety of majors.

16 students participated:

6 males, 10 females

2 African-American, 14 white

two international students

The grid of responses is contained in the attachment “POLT 1060 Mission Survey grid”.

These are additional comments made after the students were given the Mission Statement to read.

What are the parts of Webster’s mission that it does well?

- small classes
- it advertises its diversity motto
- student-centered environment
- internationalism
- uniting theory/practice
- encourages critical thinking, understanding values

What are the parts that could be improved upon?

- not always accessible to all socio-economic levels
- doesn’t sufficiently promote access to overseas campuses
- not really very involved with the larger community—doesn’t do much beyond WWW day
- often hard to plan schedules if you go overseas—doesn’t make international learning easy
- could better advertise various degrees, majors

Are there things that Webster does well that should be mentioned in the Mission Statement?

- extracurricular activities are encouraged
- faculty really know their fields
- staff are helpful