

SGA General Meeting
Tuesday, April 19, 2005
Sunnen Lounge, UC

Call to Order

Roll Call- All Present

President's Report- Phil Eckelkamp

- All members for SGA are invited to the groundbreaking ceremony for the new resident halls on April 21 at 11:30.

-Members are encouraged to sign up for the SGA BBQ at Springfest

-Anyone interested in a SGA vs. RHA softball game should talk to Phil

Comptroller's Report- Nick McGeehon

-The balance left in the SGA operation account is $1104.14. The allocation account is $20294.40.

Committee Reports

Executive Board- Next meeting, April 26 at 3:00

Budget- Next meeting, April 26 at 4:00

Communications- Check the new website

Student Grant Fund- Last meeting on Friday

Neighborhood- Phil contacted Jim Staley regarding the lights at the high school.

Recycling- The committee will have a booth at Springfest.

Safety- Campus walk-through on Thursday

University Center Board- Next meeting, April 20

Kiosk- The university has $2000 available for the kiosk, and SGA will have to provide the rest.

Double Minor- A resolution will be proposed in the next week.

Advisor Reports

Ted Hoef-

-The Dean's Service Awards and Outstanding Student Employee Awards for Spring I have been announced.

John Ginsburg-

-The elections ran smoothly, and we have Election Commissioner Sarah Truckey and others to thank for that. Turnout was 373. Write-in candidate Rachel Kaufman (Maumee represents!) has accepted.

-The person who's life was portrayed in Hotel Rwanda will be speaking on Saturday at 1:00 at the Historical Society. Tickets for this sold-out event are available at the UC front desk.

-“The Last Goodbye” will be shown at the Wini-Moore Thursday, April 28, at 9:30. The director will be present to take questions after the movie.

-All Student Groups should RSVP for the Student Leadership Awards.

-16 Student Orgs have reserved space at the Party on the Quad.

Old Business

New Club Recognition: Philosophy Club

Eckelkamp moves to take the issue off the table (second). Vote unanimous.

Discussion.

Vote to make the Philosophy Club a recognized, funded organization: unanimous.

New Business

New Club Recognition: Webster University Animal Rights Network

Discussion.

Motion to recognize WUARN was a non-funded group. Vote unanimous.

Budget Process Review

McGeehon moves to adopt new budget by-laws (second.)

Vote unanimous.

Student Grant Fund Request

Zickgraf moves to approve $1500 for the National Student Advertising Competition (second).

Discussion.

Vote unanimous.

Open Floor

Ratz- The Party on the Quad is Friday from 1-6. Events/activities include the SGA BBQ, free food (funnel cakes and slushes), and live music. In case of rain, it will be held in the gym.

Minnick- On Monday, April 25, PEZ and Health Services are holding a stress-relief event in the Sunnen Lounge.

-“Into the Woods,” a Webster musical, is opening.

Watts- Speed Dating will be held Wednesday at 9:30.

-A Semi-formal event will be held in the Sunnen Lounge on May 6.

Moore- A Dance Ensemble Show will be held in the Loretto-Hilton Center April 29-May 1.

Kirkwood- “Surfacing,” a group of plays written by and featuring Webster students, will Friday to Sunday on LH Center Stage 2.

Bullard- A Women’s softball game will be today at Blackburn Park.

-Kevin Gunn, a former aide to Rep. Gephardt, will be speaking at Webster on April 27 at 9:00.

McGeehon- All Senators are encouraged to go to the next Budget Committee meeting, as new ideas about budgets will be proposed.

Adjournment

Watts moves to adjourn (second). Vote unanimous.