

SGA Meeting Minutes
January 24, 2006

Roll was taken

- ◆ Absent was Billy Ratz

Reports:

- ◆ Trevor Zickgraf:

- ◆ Office hours are starting
- ◆ Education Senator Seat open
- ◆ Meeting on January 25, 2006 for future Campus Food Vendors
- ◆ Academic Affairs will start polling for the proposed Dead Days in fall (couple days off before finals to relax, talk to professors, study, discuss projects, etc.)
- ◆ Makes a motion to improve $7500 to be Allocated for Readership Program
- ◆ All members of SGA favor the motion
- ◆ The Journal will be meeting the 3 and 4 of February

- ◆ Nick McGeehon

- ◆ Waiting for future information on Parking Appeals
- ◆ SGA budget Accounts are in
- ◆ It has been noted that there is no money in the Readership Program

Committee Reports:

- ◆ Devon Schwab

Meeting Next Tuesday for the Student Grant Fund

Devon has requested for another Mac Computer in the library and pushing for a printer also

- ◆ Marlena Carabajal

Meeting On Friday for the Recycling Committee

- ◆ Mathias Jackson

Curriculum Committee had a meeting last Tuesday. Changes have been made to have Business Ethics to be removed from required classes

- ◆ Gabe Bullard

Has noted to making the University Center more handicap accessible

Advisors Reports

- ◆ Dr. Ted Hoef

These are the food service companies that have bided to serve at Webster University
Sudexo
Chartc
Aladdin
Foodman

February 10, 2006 Finalists will set up a booth to have student body feedback
First of April a selection will be made
Each food service has a day to come to survey
January 25,2006 A lounge furniture Show in the Sunnen Lounge from 9 am to 9 pm
RFP meeting Presentation at 3

Awards Presented for Deans Award Recipients are named for Fall I and II:
Lauren Kirkwood, Rob Walsh, Crystal Ginn, and Heidi Lee.

- Lauren Kirkwood, a sophomore film major from Morehead, Kentucky, was nominated by Sara Gunn, a student senator in the Student Government Association (SGA), and Gabe Bullard, the Sergeant-At-Arms of SGA. She was nominated for encouraging students to get involved in campus life and community service and for her contributions to the campus community as comptroller of SGA and as an RA in Maria Hall.
- Crystal Ginn, a senior interactive digital media major from St. Louis, was nominated by the Business Office Staff. She was nominated for her contributions to the campus community through her active involvement as editor of the Ampersand magazine, promotions manager for GTV, national communications coordinator for RHA, vice president of the Media Association, member of the Residence Hall Planning Committee, and president of the Student Alumni Association.
- Rob Walsh, a graduate student in the Nurse Anesthetist program, from Fenton, was nominated by Julie Stone, assistant professor and director of the MS in Nurse Anesthesia program. He was nominated for his contributions to the campus community as president of the Class of 2007 within the Nurse Anesthesia program.
- Heidi Lee, a graduate student in the Nurse Anesthetist program, from St. Louis, was nominated by Rob Walsh, a fellow graduate student in the Nurse Anesthesia program. She was nominated for her contributions to the campus community as vice president of the Class of 2007 within the Nurse Anesthesia program.

Outstanding Student Employee Award Recipients Named for Fall I and II
Suzanne Jones, assistant director of Career Services for student employment, has announced the selection of two students to receive the Outstanding Student Employee Award for Fall I and one for Fall II.

The award recipients are Justin Schulz, DJ Colbert, and Jennifer McSheehy.

- Justin Schulz, a senior music major from St. Louis, was nominated by Fran Hooker, coordinator of the Writing Center. He was nominated for his outstanding work as a writing coach and co-manager of the online writing center.
- DJ Colbert, a senior psychology major from Beaumont, Texas was nominated by Maureen Stroer, program coordinator in Career Services. He was nominated for his excellent work as a student employee and web designer in Career Services.
- Jennifer McSheehy, a junior history major from Florissant, Missouri, was nominated by Tom Hart, director of Athletics. She was nominated for her outstanding work as a student employee in the Athletics office, most especially by helping to run the office after the retirement of Athletic's long-time department associate. She also serves as the ambassador for all visiting teams and officials during home basketball games.

◆ John Ginsburg reports:

- ◆ New recycling bins that accept glass, plastic in the Webster Hall and now in the University Center
- ◆ Committee is working on getting small bins of recycling in
- ◆ Officer Summit on March 3, 2006
- ◆ Changes of Officers meet with John Ginsburg
- ◆ Friday and Saturday the Forensic Science Debate Tournament will be held at Webster University

◆ Ethics Pledge Presented

The Ethics Pledge is your signature that will give you a ribbon or pin on Graduation Day
.motion has been set to discuss next SGA meeting
ideas to improve the Ethics Pledge is to have a class set or community service hours

◆ Mathias Jackson and Nick McGeehon

Disagrees with the Ethics Pledge being tied to Graduation

It diminishes the other ribbons received that to longer to receive