

The Emerson Library has created a set of web pages, the Emerson Library Computing Guide, to assist users with technology in the library, including PCs, copiers, printers, and laptop connections. There are links to this guide on the Passports web site and on the desktops of the public computers in the library. The URL for the guide is:

<http://library.webster.edu/pcguide/index.html>