

Differences Between Webster's 2007 Commuter and Residential Freshmen

	Commuter %	Residential %	Significance Level
Expect to get their advanced degree at Webster	32.1	17.2	95%
Estimate parental income of $100K +	20.3	33.5	95%
Self-rated their Computer Skills in top 10%	14.0	5.4	95%
Self-rated their Public Speaking Skills above average or in top 10%	37.8	51.6	95%
Agree: Chief benefit of college education is increased earning power	67.6	52.2	95%
Worked for pay 11+ hours per week during previous year *	58.0	44.2	95%
Chose Webster because they wanted to live near home	44.1	18.6	99%
Expect to work full time while in college	42.1	27.1	95%
How they learned about Webster: "Always known about Webster".	38.1	20.0	99%
Interested or very interested in attending on-campus events	75.0	89.1	99%
Expect to work 21+ hours at off-campus job	22.4	5.2	99%
Interested or very interested in living on campus next year	42.0	84.3	99%
Interested or very interested in participating in student organizations	58.5	71.9	95%

* Hours spent studying were similar for Commuters and Residents; Commuters spent slightly less time in recreational computer use.