

Learning Outcomes Presentation - Spring, 2007

Your feedback below is very helpful for the future development of University Center and Student Activities employment practices and policies. Thanks for your help.

Position held in University Center: _____PROGRAM MANAGER_____

1. What new skills have you learned while employed in the University Center? You can be as general or specific as you like.

Learning Outcomes

Attention to detail
working with difficult people working with diverse groups critical thinking - 2
team work - 2
building community
professionalism
networking
collaboration
thinking on my feet
creative thinking

Job Tasks

Publicizing/advertising events – 4 target marketing
event planning – 2
event management
working with vendors
working with performers
money management
determining the appeal of events to students including other departments and student groups in planning

2. What skills would you like to learn working in the University Center? Again, you may be as general or specific as you like.

Learning Outcomes

efficiency
better advertising
thinking on my feet
creative thinking
teamwork

Job Tasks

Getting more students to attend events - 2

doing larger, more outlandish events planning larger events more smoothly
event management

3. Please identify how you hope to benefit from working in the University Center, other than the skills mentioned above.

people skills - 2
event planning skills translation to future employment - 2 how to manage and be managed help in my major with understanding people dealing with contracts networking with faculty and staff getting more involved on campus communication skills professional relationships friendships
how to run a student union