

The Netherlands Residence Permit Information

For students studying in Leiden needing a residence permit (VVR)

 Can only take place after arrival to The Netherlands **

Documents Required:

- Completed and signed VVR application form (receive form after arrival to Leiden)
- Financial statement of your stay
 - If a third party (parents) pay your stay, you will have to provide an original and signed statement both from your parents and from their bank. You will have to provide an overview of your expected expenses for tuition, housing & costs of living and the financial means that you receive (loans, financial aid, parents, sponsors, etc.) The minimum amount of income per month needs to be €776. Your financial statement has to prove that you have access to this amount each month.
- Enrollment letter from Webster University
- Passport photo taken in Leiden (Dutch passport regulations) Price: €8
- Copy of the first page of your passport
- If applicable: Tuberculosis test form (students from Asia, Latin America, Southeast Asia, and Africa)

Processing Fees:

€433

Processing Time:

After full completion of application documents, approximately 8-10 weeks

Validity of VVR:

One year from the moment you apply

You will receive further instruction and be able to obtain the VVR application once you arrive to Webster Leiden.

