

NAMIBIA

Cultures - Wildlife - Geography

Windhoek and beyond

Fall 2 Course: ISTL 2550, Section 11

Topics in International Studies: The cultures, wildlife, and geography of Namibia.
(3-credit hybrid course)

Online course work: December 1, 2010 – January 25, 2011

In Namibia, plus travel time: December 20, 2010 – January 7, 2011

- Immerse yourself in Namibian cultures
- See wildlife up close in their natural environment
- Climb giant red sand dunes and walk among thousand-year-old rock art
- This is a “hybrid” course; Internet access required – prior online course experience is not necessary

MONEY MATTERS

Tuition: Fall 2010 rate.

Lab Fee + Study Abroad Fee: $1,075 + $250; includes accommodations and transportation in Namibia, most meals, Lonely Planet guide, International Student Identification Card (ISIC), study abroad health and accident insurance, and pre-departure orientation.

Small study group!

AIR ARRANGEMENTS

To be made on your own, but you will receive guidance from the instructor. Airfare is estimated at about $2,200.

HOW TO APPLY FOR STUDY ABROAD

- Visit: <http://www.webster.edu/studyabroad/short/namibia.shtml> or
- Stop by the Office of Study Abroad (OSA) located in 165 Loretto Hall to pick up an application!

DEADLINE

- The application form and $500 check deposit are due at the OSA by September 20, 2010.
- Please note that the deposit is non-refundable after you turn it in, even if you drop the class.

For more details, contact:

John Ginsburg
University Center

314-968-7105 or ginsbujo@webster.edu

