

COURSE EQUIVALENCIES

Webster's courses satisfy the requirements to register as a licensed mental health intern with the State of Florida, as shown below.

Webster Course	State Requirements
COUN 5200	Counseling Theories and Practice
COUN 5050	Human Growth and Development
COUN 5150	Diagnosis and Treatment of Psychopathology
COUN 5560	Human Sexuality Theories
COUN 5600	Group Theories and Practice
COUN 5220	Individual Evaluation and Assessment
COUN 5700	Career and Lifestyle Assessment
COUN 5850	Research and Program Evaluation
COUN 5100	Social and Cultural Foundations
COUN 5820	Counseling in Community Settings
COUN 5630	Substance Abuse
COUN 5800	Legal, Ethical and Professional Standards
COUN 6000	1000 hours of university-supervised practicum and internship
COUN 6500

Webster's courses satisfy the Specialization Requirements for Certification in Guidance and Counseling (Grades PK-12), Plan Two, as shown below.

Webster Course	State Requirements
COUN 5680	Principles, philosophy, organization, and administration of guidance.
COUN 5220	Student appraisal including administration and interpretation of standardized tests.
COUN 5700	Education and career development information practices and systems.
COUN 5050	Learning, personality theory, and human development.
COUN 5200	Counseling theories and individual counseling techniques.
COUN 5600	Group counseling and guidance techniques.
COUN 5820	Consultation skills and techniques for conferring with groups such as agencies, teachers, and parents.
COUN 5800	Legal, ethical, and current issues affecting school counselors.
COUN 5635	Specialized counseling techniques for use with elementary or secondary level special populations such as: exceptional students, dropouts, minorities, and women re-entering the labor force.
COUN 6000	A supervised counseling practicum in an elementary or secondary school.