IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- The maximum Stafford Student Loan funding that can be awarded to a student for an academic year is $20,500. A student's personal eligibility may not allow for loan certification to this amount.
- Students must reapply each academic year for financial aid, including Stafford Student Loans.
- You must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) in addition to Webster's Financial Aid form. Additional information or forms may be required to complete your application after these documents have been submitted.
- If you are a first time borrower at Webster University, you will need to sign a Master Promissory Note (MPN) at www.studentloans.gov. You will not receive any funds until the MPN is completed and signed.
- Any changes in your projected enrollment will change your eligibility.
- You should complete all application materials as soon as possible. Applications completed less than one month prior to the end of your enrollment period or academic year (whichever is earlier) may not be processed in time to secure funding.
- When your file is complete and your eligibility is determined, you will be sent an award letter that shows the amounts and conditions of the funds scheduled for you to receive.

Webster University Entrance Loan Counseling

If you are a first time student loan borrower at Webster University you must complete entrance loan counseling. You may do this online at <https://studentloans.gov>.
