....And the Winner Is.....

Our annual Spring Free Textbook Raffle winner is Bryan Shoultz. Bryan is a graduate student at Westport working on his MBA with an emphasis in Information Technology Management.

Congratulations, Bryan!

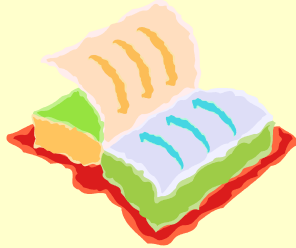

Faculty and Students: Be Sure to Sign Up For Webster Alerts!

During this term we may have questionable weather from time to time; it is important that you have a central place to go to find out about class cancellations due to weather. If you sign up for Webster Alerts, the University makes it easy and will notify you by text message or email about any alerts. If you have previously signed up, please go into the system and be sure your account is active, as there was a recent change to the system, and all clients needed to reinstate their accounts.

We encourage you to sign up for this convenience, as the campus office will no longer be calling all students in case of bad weather cancellations. We will contact registered students by their Webster email address. Remember, you can have your Webster email address forwarded to your regular email. You may also see information about university closing due to weather on the major TV stations and on the Webster University homepage.

To sign up for this service, go to <http://www.webster.edu/technology/websteralerts/>

Just as leaders are made and not born great business doesn't just happen. In Never By Chance: Aligning People and Strategy Through Intentional Leadership authors Chuck Feltz, Joe Calloway and Kris Young outline the power of deliberate direction and how in 2010 embracing intentional leadership will separate business survivors from those going bankrupt. Never By Chance tops Webster BizTalk Book Clubs' "must reads" for the year.

Have you Heard?.....

Our President of Webster U., Beth Stroble, recently announced a new collaboration between Webster U. and Eden Theological Seminary in Webster Groves. Eden will transfer 5.5 acres and 3 buildings to Webster U. for $5.3 million. This move is intended to maximize the use and enjoyment of the two adjoining campuses while meeting each institution's needs. Eden's library will be consolidated and integrated into Webster's state of the art Emerson Library. Webster will gain more space and facilities and also lease Eden's athletic fields for recreation and intramural athletics for 7 years. Eden's students, faculty and staff will have full access to Webster's library, fitness center, and pool.

This collaboration builds on a 40-year history of successful cooperation between the two schools, referred to as the Eden-Webster Library System for many years. Congrats to Webster on this new endeavor! Click here for the press release.
