

PATA - Patent Practice | Grad

PATA 5120 Foundations in Intellectual Property Law (3)

This course is a survey of the four primary areas of intellectual property -- patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets. This course will compare and contrast the protections afforded by each of these primary areas of intellectual property law, and will clarify the scope and limits of patent protection for new inventions and discoveries.