

Level I - Second Place Winner

Frazar Henry

Frazar Henry is the critically acclaimed, homeschooled tenth grade composer who won the ASCAP Foundation 2018 Morton Gould Young Composer Award after having received an Honorable Mention in 2016. He was named the 2020 Winner for both Florida and the Southern Division MTNA Composition Competition. He was also awarded 2nd Place in the 2020-2021 Community Music School of Webster University Young Composer Competition and 1st Place in the 2020 Miami Music Teachers Foundation Composition Contest.

Prior to the pandemic, Henry won the 2020 Frost International Young Artists Piano Concerto and Solo Piano Competitions. And though there was no 2021 Concerto Competition, Henry did repeat as winner of the 2021 Frost International Young Artists Solo Piano Competition: Recipient, Mary Lou Krosnick Award - Best Performance of a Classical Work. In addition to winning 1st Prize for Piano in the 2019 Music Foundation of Greater Naples Scholarship Competition and several First-Place awards in FGCU/Steinway Young Artist Competitions, he has garnered notable awards and recognition from the Tribeca New Music 2020 National Young Composer Competition, 2020 Heart Out Piano Competition, 2019 Tampa Bay Symphony 4th annual Call for Scores Composition Competition, and 2019 Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of New York's Emerging Composers Competition.
